

Colorado law generally prohibits the possession, transfer, or sale of large-capacity magazines, with enumerated exceptions. In compliance with state law, Colorado Parks and Wildlife (CPW) does not allow any person to possess a large-capacity magazine on its properties unless an exception to the prohibition applies to that person.

Declaration Regarding Large Capacity Magazines

I submit this declaration to the Colorado Division of Parks and Wildlife and state as follows:

1. I intend to shoot firearms at CPW's Cameo Shooting and Education Complex (Cameo).
2. I understand that Colorado law prohibits the possession, transfer, and sale of certain "large capacity magazines" as defined in § 18-12-301, CRS (attached below), with certain exceptions.
3. I have read and understand §§ 18-12-301 – 302, CRS.
4. To the extent I will possess a large capacity magazine at Cameo, such possession is lawful under §§ 18-12-301 – 302, CRS, because (select one or more options below):
  - a. _____ I have owned and continuously possessed such magazine(s) since July 1, 2013;
  - b. _____ I am an employee or member of a branch of the armed forces of the United States and bear a firearm in the course of my official duties;
  - c. _____ I am an employee of a department, agency, or political subdivision of the State of Colorado, or of any other state, or of the United States government, and bear a firearm in the course of my official duties.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of Colorado that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this _____ day of _____, 2022, at the Cameo Shooting and Education Complex, 3934 I 9/10 Rd, Palisade, CO 81526.

➤ Under Colorado Revised Statute § 18-12-301, “Large-capacity magazine” means:

(I) A fixed or detachable magazine, box, drum, feed strip, or similar device capable of accepting, or that is designed to be readily converted to accept, more than fifteen rounds of ammunition;

(II) A fixed, tubular shotgun magazine that holds more than twenty-eight inches of shotgun shells, including any extension device that is attached to the magazine and holds additional shotgun shells; or

(III) A nontubular, detachable magazine, box, drum, feed strip, or similar device that is capable of accepting more than eight shotgun shells when combined with a fixed magazine.

(b) “Large-capacity magazine” does not mean:

(I) A feeding device that has been permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate more than fifteen rounds of ammunition;

(II) An attached tubular device designed to accept, and capable of operating only with, .22 caliber rimfire ammunition; or

(III) A tubular magazine that is contained in a lever-action firearm.

§ 18-12-302(1)-(2). Large-capacity magazines prohibited--penalties--exceptions

(1)(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, on and after July 1, 2013, a person who sells, transfers, or possesses a large-capacity magazine commits a class 2 misdemeanor.

(b) [repealed].

(c) Any person who violates this subsection (1) commits a class 6 felony if the person possessed a large-capacity magazine during the commission of a felony or any crime of violence, as defined in section 18-1.3-406.

(2)(a) A person may possess a large-capacity magazine if he or she:

(I) Owns the large-capacity magazine on July 1, 2013; and

(II) Maintains continuous possession of the large-capacity magazine.

(3) The offense described in subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to:

(a) [not pertinent]

(b) An employee of any of the following agencies who bears a firearm in the course of his or her official duties:

(I) A branch of the armed forces of the United States; or

(II) A department, agency, or political subdivision of the state of Colorado, or of any other state, or of the United States government; or

(c) [not pertinent].
