

WORLDS LONGEST SHOT CHALLENGE

April 12-15, 2018

VALDINA RANCH, TEXAS

Hosted by: SILVER T SHOOTING SPORTS

Match Overview:

- This match is the longest shooting competition in the world, currently holds the record for the longest shot ever made in a competition.
- The ranch location is an hour and 20 minutes west of San Antonio airport.
- Thursday April 12th, is sight in day.
- On sight in day, no more than 10 shots are allowed, sighting in will take place on the short range with targets to 1100.
- All-inclusive match fee is $975 per team for 3 nights and 4 days with lodging and meals included for each team entry. Match fee only $250.
- Team competition includes the shooter and up to 2 spotters.
- Only 40 team spots are available.
- Match fee includes lodging and meals for each team for 3 nights and 3 days, this includes a private room for each team, at the main lodge.
- Targets will start near a mile and continue to 4900 yards.
- Following the match, record setting attempts out to 4900 yards are available and will be conducted following ELR central guidelines each day.
- Match will follow all ELR guidelines for target sizes and record settings.
- There are four divisions: 338 and under production, 338 and under non-production, 375 and up production & 375 and up non-production. Production is any cartridge that is currently mass produced and available through multiple retailers.
- Vendor row will be near the main firing line.
- Additional rooms are available if needed, contact the MD (Travis Walla) email - traviswalla@me.com
- If you have anything besides AT&T cellular service, you may experience limited signal on location.
- The main lodge is outfitted with a full-size game room; shuffle board, darts, pool tables, air hockey table, and pool/hot tub.

